JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THE ATTEMPT AT MURDER.—The negro who was reported in our last issue to have been shot Wednesday night last is named Simon Jackson. He resides on Queen street, between Sixth and Seventh and is now suffering with the wound received on the occasion to which we refer. We now learn that having remained in his house until after 8 o'clock that evening, he went out for some purpose and had scarcely cleared his own premises before a shot was fired by some party in the dark. Jackson's wife heard him cry "oh! Lord I'm shot," and ran out and found him stretched upon the ground bleeding from a wound in the head. He was carried into his house in an insensible condition, and a physician summoned who found that he had been struck on the head near the top of the forehead by a ball which had glanced off without fracturing the skull, though causing considerable concussion.

Jackson lay insensible until yesterday morning, and now seems much better.—He is unable to tell who shot him. His wife says she knows of his having no dispute with any man, except with one person about some money which Jackson attempted to collect. But this caused no hard feelings between them and certainly not enough to call for any revenge. So the cowardly miscreant who attempted this murder in the dark is unknown and yet goes unwhipt of justice.—Wil. Journal, Jan. 28.

STEAMER SUNK—ONE MAN DROWNED.—Last night about 8 o'clock as the little tug Tioga, belonging to Messrs. Beery Bros., was coming up the river from below, in the darkness of the night she ran into the obstructions near the mouth of Brunswick river, about four or five miles down the Cape Fear below this place, and was sunk. Before she went down the whistle was blown as in distress, and a party of men put out in a small boat to the assistance of those on board from Hart's vineyard, nearly opposite. But in jumping from the sinking steamer into a small boat, one man was drowned. The person who brought the news to the city was one of those who put out from the vineyard, and left soon after the accident. He is unable to tell whether the party drowned was a white or a colored man. The water is not very deep where the steamer is sunk, and there will be little difficulty about raising her.—Wil. Journal, Jan. 28.

During the discussion of the Military bill, in the House, on Monday, James Harris, col., detailed numerous Ku Klux outrages that demanded the interference of the Military, and related an outrage which he said was committed on a negro man in Forsyth, and that the Grand Jury had refused to find a true bill against the parties. J. P. Vest interrupted, and said that the Jury could not get proof against all, but a part of them had been bound over.

We know of but one outrage perpetrated on a negro in this county for several years, and that was an old, and almost helpless negro man, named Dick, during the time of slavery, was sent in the winter to work by himself, on a poor poverty-stricken piece of land, and while at work there was taken sick and unable to leave, and starved to death. We would suggest to Harris to ask J. P. Vest, who sent that poor old sick negro out to that place, and who allowed him to starve to death. We will bet a real showman's woolly hog that he won't tell, and we will agree to give the hog to Vest if we win, and insure him that he can make more money out of it than the one he used to show at ten cents a sight before he commenced to keep a grog shop in Winston, where he sold tangle leg whiskey at five cents a nip.—Western Sentinel.

In reading the proceedings of the "hands," we notice that a bill to restore the credit of the State is now pending in the Senate. The report is too meagre to give the details, but we do not see how any amount of legislation under present auspices can accomplish it. Resolutions will not wipe out the foul blot on Littlefield's character, and make him an honest man. There is a way however, by which the reputation of the State can be restored, and that is, for the Legislature forthwith to adjourn, and the people, irrespective of party or color, to take matters in their own hands and drive rogues and corruptionists from power and fill the offices with pure, honest, honorable, incorruptable and efficient statesmen. All the people are interested in this measure, as all are affected by the ruin a devastation that now hangs like a pall over the State. All true men must be awakened to the state of things which now exist, and all must be called upon to lend a helping hand to apply the remedy. As the tax-payer is ground down by the cruel burdens that now oppress him, so will the laborer feel it in diminution of the fruits of his toil. In fact, the poorer the man the more he suffers from the corruption which now riots in the land. Let the issue be made in favor of low taxes, economy in the administration of affairs—in other words, of honesty against villiany—and if presented unincumbered with extraneous matters many of which are now settled by law—or what goes for it—and the masses will rally to the standard with an enthusiasm that all the tyranical measures, the militia bill included, will be unable to resist. We have faith in the people, and believe there will yet be such a reckoning, as will teach all such as now grow fat upon their sweat and toil, that it is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of those who have been betrayed, deceived, and outraged.—Charlotte Times.

A NORTH CAROLINA INVENTION MAKING A NOISE AT THE NORTH.—Collector Pleasanton, of New York, has written a letter to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington, suggesting that the Engraving Machine invented by Guerrant & Fields, of Leaksville, North Carolina, and now being manufactured at the Ames' Works, Cincopee, Mass, would be a very dangerous machine in improper hands and should be under the control of the government. He recommends that such negotiations be entered into as will give the government the control and direction of so important and invention. Notices of this wonderful invention have heretofore been published in this paper.—Wil. Journal.

"Silence in the court-room, there," thundered a police magistrate, "the court has already committed four prisoners without being able to hear a word of the testimony."

NO SMOKE. NO SMELL.

KEROSENE LIGHTS PERFECTED!

DANFORD'S

Atmospheric

KEROSENE LAMP.

THE ONLY PERFECTLY SAFE LAMP IN USE.

Artificial Light, of some sort, is a universal necessity; a safe, cheap, and brilliant one is a luxury; a luxury, too, only enjoyed heretofore by those living in large towns or cities where Gas is used. Years of study and thousands of dollars annually have been spent by experments of different kinds, in trying to invent and perfect a Burner or Lamp by which Coal Oil or Kerosene could be burned practicably, without the expense and trouble of chimneys; this long looked for and much desired subject has at last been obtained, and is styled the

ATMOSPHERIC KEROSENE LAMP!

Its adaptation to Dwellings, Churches, Railroads, Steamboats, Hotels, Stores, &c., is unsurpassed; in short, this invention brings the luxurious and brilliant Gas Light within the reach of all, whether in the City or Country. It gives the light of a six-foot Gas Burner, for less than one cent per hour, or double the quantity of light, of the ordinary chimney-lamp with one third less oil; will burn, when turned down to a taper light ten hours for one cent; is free from smoke or smell; can be carried from room to room; the wind will not blow it out.

This Lamp is destined to supersede all portable artificial light or chimney lamps now in use and needs only to be seen to be appreciated; thousand of them will find ready sale in every county—no family that uses this light for one evening will again be annoyed with the chimney-lamps. Thousands of them will be used in cities, as this light is one-half cheaper than Coal Gas, and much more pleasant to the eye.

The sole right for the sale of this Lamp can be had for the entire State or the same will be sold by Counties.

Parties purchasing will be supplied, at wholesale, with the lamp and fixtures at reasonable rates.

Immediate application should be made to secure the choice of Counties.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1870.

HURRY UP THE BILL.

The Legislature of North Carolina, composed of carpet baggers, negroes, honest men and rogues, convicted and unconvicted, are hard at work on a bill to protect their characters. The design of the bill is to make slander a misdemeanor.

By this bill any rogue in the State may have any citizen arrested for calling him a rogue, and have a capias issued to take him, at the State's expense, to a distant county for trial. Parson Sinclair seems to be the great advocate of the bill in the House.

If the "hands" were capable of appreciating reason, we would endeavor to show them the folly and injustice of their course in the matter, but they will not listen.—The only argument they use, out of the House is, "d—n Jo Turner, we'll have him in jail when that bill is passed."

We will say to the "hands," that this bill cannot give some of them any character, and it is generally that class of persons who have bad or very doubtful characters who are always resorting to expedients to patch them up.

But to the operations of the bill. If the SENTINEL should say that one of the "hands," Rev. James Sinclair, for instance, was impeached by his Church for kidnapping and selling one Kit Mitchell, a free negro, into perpetual slavery, when he had bought him for a term of years, to pay some Court expenses, the Rev. "Hand," could go home to Robeson and get a negro jury or a scalawag jury to indict us for slander, and put us to the trouble of attending, perhaps, two or three Courts, and force us to call on Capt. C. Godwin and the authenticated Church record to prove what we had asserted.

Suppose Chicken Stevens, Senator from Caswell, was to be published by us as having stolen chickens in Rockingham; he could have us indicted by a negro-scalawag jury in Caswell for slander, and, see! what a fix we would be in. We would have to go all the way to Rockingham for a copy of the record and then to Caswell to prove that what we had published was no slander. The jury might acquit us; indeed, we are sure of that, and then the State would have the cost to pay, for Tourgee would not make Chicken Stevens pay it, seeing that it was proven to the satisfaction of that Judge, in open Court, that Stevens was a man of good character, when he gave him license to practice as a "twenty dollar lawyer," and sit beside Judge Kerr and Col. Dillard, who drew the bill against him for stealing chickens!

Besides this, Judge Tourgee is Stevens' guest, when he holds Caswell Court, and, of course, he wouldn't make him pay any costs, he could saddle on the State.

Now, "Hands," it is plain that this bill can recommend itself to none but men who have some doubt of their own characters, or to fools. [We don't like to use this last term, as applied to lawmakers of the State, but it is the only word we could find to make the sense and sentence complete.]

We drop the subject here for the present, but will resume it when the "hands" resume the consideration of the bill.

P. S.—Since the above was written and in type, the Senate has acted on this bill and killed it by one vote. This was a sad disappointment to some of the "hands," no doubt, who were anticipating to make of this bill a noose for Jo. Turner's neck.—Those however, who have been thus sadly disappointed may console themselves with the consideration, that whether the law passed or does not pass, it will make very little difference with the SENTINEL; for we expect to let the people know the frauds, rascalities and incompetences of Radical office holders, while paper and ink hold out, and forty such bills would not prevent it.

Never mind! we'll perhaps get a chance of proving what we say of some of them, in Court, yet. We thought that we might get a chance at them, under this bill, but they have headed us off by killing it.

CUFFY MATCO.

Uncle Cuffy called on us Saturday morning for a SENTINEL, we told him he should be ashamed, as an honest man, to sit by General Laflin, a swindler. Uncle Cuffy replied, "I do not uphold him, sir, gentlemen elected to do public business should be here to attend to it." We then told uncle Cuffy his absence could be tolerated, but he was a swindler, and, as an honest man, he should move to have him expelled. We offered to furnish uncle Cuffy the evidence of his swindling, if he would move resolutions upon him. Uncle Cuffy would only say he did not approve of his absence.—This shows uncle Cuffy better than the Senate, for the Senate did not disapprove of Littlefield's absence, even.

COUSIN PHIL.

Cousin Phil. is said to be going it with rolled up sleeves for the sale of the North Carolina Railroad. Phil. is certainly able bodied, and he has other qualities which will make him the best hand in the Senate, in getting through Barnett's bill. Phil. is loyal too, for he threatened, in 1861, to "bring forty men from Franklin or Warren to put the Union shriekers of Wake right." Cousin Phil. would not vote to have Littlefield, the swindler, removed as State Printer. No, not he.

THE CODE COMMISSION.

We have not often alluded to the individual members of this body, as Code Commissioners, though we may have occasionally alluded to them in some of their other official connections. The Senate, however, seems to have indulged a little curiosity in regard to the Code Commission, and sent them a polite request, in the shape of resolutions, to report proceedings, &c., "respectively." The report came in, on Saturday, not exactly "respectively," but conjointly, and we have a copy of it before us.

In this report are, as St. Peter said of some of saint Paul's writings, "somethings hard to be understood." We cannot, now, go into a critical dissection of the production, but may do so hereafter.

The Commissioners say to the Senate, that "they have been actually engaged in the performance of their duties as Commissioners of the Code, from the adoption of the Constitution in 1868, until the present moment." How they have been "actually engaged" in it all this time, and Rodman sitting on the Supreme Court Bench, and Tourgee holding Superior Courts a good deal of the time, is one of the things hard to be understood.

They speak of "our national renaissance," another thing hard to be understood.

The Treasurer answered some resolutions of the Senate in regard to the pay of the Commissioners, from which it appears that each one of them drew $200 for the month of June 1868—making $600,—which was one month before the new regime went into operation. This is another thing hard to be understood.

From this same report of the Treasurer, it appears that the Commission have already been paid $9,800, and there is yet due Barringer $400; Tourgee, $400, and Rodman, $1,400, making in all the sum of $12,000 which the three Code Commissioners have cost the State, up to this day, as Code Commissioners. Besides this Tourgee, has received, as Judge of the Superior Court, $3,958, and Judge Rodman $3 958, as Judge of the Supreme Court, making the entire sum of nineteen thousand, nine hundred and sixteen dollars, that these three individuals have received out of the treasury since the first of June 1868, if the Judges' salaries commenced when the Commissioners' did. This is another thing hard to be understood, or rather, hard to pay by tax-payers of the State.

More anon.

RAILROADS OR NO RAILROADS.

When the bill entitled, "an act to restore the credit of the State and to facilitate the completion of our unfinished Railroads," was under consideration in the Senate, last week, Dr. Love offered the following amendment:

"After the bonds, securities and moneys of the several railroads, or either of them, shall be returned into the Treasury, less the sum allowed to be retained to pay for work already done, then the Governor and Council of State, at any time thereafter, upon the sworn statement of the President and Chief Engineer of any such Road as may have returned, as above, that the funds hitherto in their hands have been faithfully applied in the construction of their Road, and that a certain sum of money will be needed to pay for contemplated labor on such Road during the next succeeding ninety days, shall authorize and direct the Treasurer to deliver to such President the amount of such estimate, in bonds, securities or moneys of such Road, it the Road have effects in the Treasury."

This amendment was advocated in a speech of considerable length and earnestness, by its author, who alleged that if the bill passed without embodying the substance of his amendment, it amounted to a virtual abandonment of the several Railroads in the State, now in course of construction. He desired to know if the Republicans were going back on themselves; if they, who were the self-instituted Railroad party in the State, intended to abandon the Railroads they had pledged themselves in Convention and on the stump, to build. Especially he desired to know if they intended to abandon the Western North Carolina Railroad.

The amendment was rejected, twenty-five Republicans voting against it.

NEW PAPER.

There is talk of starting a new Radical paper in this city, all of which means that the Governor will advise Littlefield, by way of retaining the public printing, to pretend to sell out the Standard to some native scalawag, such as Victor Barringer, Badham or Cantwell, or some other weak kneed lawyer, who stands "watching and waiting" for a place. The Governor knows that Littlefield I must play out, as did N. Paige & Co. It may be that "cousin John," who was deposed to make place for the copperhead Pike, will be reinstated. If you are not, "cousin John," we advise you to quit the concern, shake hands with Vance again, and feel once more "like a gentleman."

CUFFEY MAKES A SPEECH.

When the military bill was under consideration in the House of Commons, on the 17th of January, Cuffey expatiated as follows:

MR. SPEAKER:—As de gentleman from de other side ob de hill has said a good eel, I claim as the folkses representative, to say a little in offence of dis milentary bill. You know that our good old fore athers fout, bled and died, and den old Columbus he come over and discovered this North Kerliner of de ku klux to ks.

Mr. Speaker, it is perfectly deriable to every biased mind on dis floor, sir, ef we don't pass dis bill to stop these contemptible ku klux reptiles, the fust thing we knows these ku klux folks and assassinationers will have all our liberties in their pockets. And I say to dose reptile folks dat de Union Leaguers will meet these ku klux peoples and try them a fist cuff battle; and I say dat de leaguers will replenish these reptiles.

Here Cuffey was choked down by his Republican brethren to prevent him making any further ass of himself, and we publish his remarks that they may go down to the "archives of gravity," with the wise sayings of Wilson Carey.

We understand that Cuffey is highly disgruntled because we haven't published his speech before, and that he went round to the Standard office yesterday afternoon, to get Pike or "that liber man," to write some thing against the SENTINEL for him. We hope Pike will help him.

We publish in another column, the remarks of Mr. Beall, of Caldwell, on the resolutions requesting the Governor to dismiss Littlefield as public printer. We commend these remarks to the careful perusal of persons of all parties. The facts there stated are undeniable and the arguments conclusive.

It is true, also, as insisted by Dr. Beall that those who voted against the resolutions, voted to sustain Littlefield, even under the charges so clearly stated against him, and so undeniably true, and we give the names of those thus voting that the people may see who they are, and remember them: They are Messrs. Beeman, Bellamy, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Epps, col., Forkner, Galloway, col., Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, col., Hawkins, Jones of Columbus, Jones of Wake, Martindale, Moore of Carteret, Respass, Shoffner, Smith, Stevens, Sweet, Welker and White.

Lassiter and several others whose names we have heretofore given, though in the Hall, dodged the question.

Mr. Winstead moved a suspension of the rules in order to put the bill through its second reading, which motion prevailed, the amendment was adopted and the bill passed its second reading. Those who voted against it are Messrs. Bellamy, Colgrove, Cook and Galloway, col.—4.

On motion of Mr. Jones, of Mecklenburg, the Secretary of the Senate was instructed to furnish the Auditor with a copy of the resolutions requesting him to itemize that portion of his report under the head of contingent expenses.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

Bill to declare slander a misdemeanor.

Mr. Robbins said he hoped this bill would not become a law. In consultation with a number of able and experienced lawyers, they expressed themselves in opposition to the bill, thought it would be the cause of much contention and many cross indictments. He had heard an experienced lawyer (Mr. Boyden) say this ought to be entitled a "bill to enable lawyers to get rich out of other people's quarrels," and that it was a most mischievous measure. He earnestly hoped this bill would be voted down, and moved that it be indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Brogden said he hoped the bill would not be indefinitely postponed, he was of the opinion, as he had repeatedly remarked on other occasions. That if every body would behave themselves and cease to indulge in so much tattling and falsehood, vituperation and slander, there would be no harm in the bill. It was very remarkable that the opposition to this bill comes from a particular source and a particular party, it was useless to disguise it, the opposition comes from that party who have been slandering others.

Mr. Jones, of Mecklenburg, said he desired to say that the insinuations of the Senator form Wayne, were contemptable and unworthy of a Senator.

The President called him to order, stating that one Senator had no right to make personal reflections on another.

Mr. Jones, of Mecklenburg, said he would not remain quiet when the Chair permitted such remarks as these made by the Senator from Wayne to go unchecked.

The President again called the Senator to order, stating that he did not construe the language used by the Senator from Wayne to apply to any Senator on the floor.

Mr. Stephens called the previous question, which was sustained, and the bill was voted down by the following vote:

NAYS.—Messrs. Beall, Beeman, Burns, Flythe, Forâner, Jones, of Mecklenburg, Legg, Lindsay, Love, Mason, Melchor, Mc Laughlin, Murphy, Richardson, Respass, Robbins, Smith, Welker, White, Whiteside and Winstead—21.

Mr. Robbins arose to a question of privilege and said that the Senator from Wayne, in his remarks, said, in substance, that the 21 Senators who were opposed to this bill were slanderers, and pronounced the charge to be false.

The President called Mr. R. to order and said the Senator from Wayne said no such thing, that the remarks of the Senator alluded to party and not to any one personally.

After some discussion the first section of the bill was stricken out and

On motion of Mr. Forkner its futher consideration was postponed until Wednesday next.

Mr. Forebee moved to amend by inserting the words "except in cases of sickness of themselves or families," adopted.

The call being sustained, the question recurred upon a substitute offered by Mr. Malone, which provides that a select Committee of three shall be appointed to enquire into all instances in which members have been absent more than ten days and report the cause of their absence to the House. Provided, That each member who has been absent more than ten days shall make a statement of the cause of absence to this Committee, which was adopted by a vote of yeas 40, nays 39.

The question recurred upon the resolution on its third reading.

Mr. Jarvis offered a substitute, that the Auditor be directed to audit no account of members of the Legislature, unless they shall make affidavit before and so endorse it upon the certificate, that they have not been absent for more than three of the days for which said account is presented without leave of the House to which such member belong, unless such absence shall have been caused by sickness.

For the Sentinel.

PLEASANT RETREAT, N. C., Jan. 23 1870.

In consequence of the distance, coupled with the almost impassible roads, your correspondent was forced to forego the pleasure of hearing you discuss the issues of the day at Rutherfordton, which has proven so disastrous to Radicalism in the "trooly loil tanner county." Notwithstanding the gigantic efforts of the organ of the Harris, Logan dynasty, called the "Star of Seventh magnitude," to get the people not to hear you, by heralding your approach as the advent of the supreme father of ku kluxes, and to impress his declaration more firmly, he accompanied it with an extraordinary portrait of "raw head and bloody bones," alias Josiah Turner, Jr. But alas! their strategy was turned to grief, as the people would go and hear the awful ku klux and open their eyes they did, consequently, nobly did they overthrow the Harris Logan, Allen and Carpenter despotism.

Hitherto I have been ashamed to own the county that gave me birth; but to-day I can say with a heart swelling with emotion, all hail glorious old Rutherford! I must however, confess, in the hours of her humiliation even the time when she was writhing under the stupendous loads of Radical pollution, she was dear to me, as I had an abiding confidence in the ultimate triumph of the "faithful few," which were still striving, I mean A. B. Long, Mills, Ledbetter, Weaver and a host of others whom the Star saw in the Convention that nominated Mr. Whiteside, that so terrified them that they could not sleep until they warned their cohorts to prepare for battle under shelter of their strongest fortress, made of old dead issue, war prejudices, old party feuds &c., but notwithstanding their strong position, the mighty storm of public indignation that has been gathering over them ever since they commenced their raising, bursted on the day of the election and was hurled against them with such fury, it was too much for human courage to stand, and so great was the panic and so signal the victory, that Logan and Harris will never be able to raise even a corporal's guard under the infernal banner of despotism and tyranny. Three cheers for Rutherford!

The learned poet in depicting the fate of the wicked with a very slight alteration meets precisely the fate of the late ruin of the Harris Logan despotism, to-wit:

Ye Leaguers, weep and howl for all
That the people has written against you is at hand.
The cry of fraud and despotism have reached their ears,
Hell is prepared and Justice whets his sword.
Weep all of every League; begin the woe,
Ye Harrises and Logans and tell it to the doleful winds;
And doleful winds, wail to the howling hills;
And howling hills, mourn to the dismal vales;
And dismal vales, sigh to the sorrowing brooks;
And sorrowing brooks weep to the weeping streams;
And weeping streams, awake thy yawning deep,
And let the instrument take up the song,
Responsive to the voice, harmonious woe!
Ye Heavens, great archway of the universe
Put sack cloth on! And Ocean clothe thyself
In garb of widowhood and gather all!
Thy waves into a groan and utter it,
Long, loud deep piercing dolorious immense
The occasion asks it: The monster Radicalism is dead,
And the people come to lay her in the grave.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, his Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

NEW ADS.—Many readers will find in our advertising columns, this morning, something to astonish, perhaps to please, and surely to profit. We want space to notice more particularly; will do that to-morrow.

PROF. LEE'S LECTURE.—Owing to the fact that a wind and rain cloud came up last night, just about the time of opening Tucker Hall, the Lecture of Prof. Lee was postponed until to night.

Now let it be remembered that the Lecture, subject, "Battle of Hampton Roads," will come off this, Tuesday evening.

This lecture of Prof. Lee, has been eulogized by the papers, wherever it has been delivered, in the highest terms, and has been repeated by request, to crowded audiences.

We do hope that Raleigh will show an appreciation of both the Lecture and the object for which it is given, by crowding the Hall to-night.

I. O. O. F.—There will be a meeting of Manteo Lodge, No. 8, I. O. O. F., at their hall, this (Tuesday) evening, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance requested.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.—We are glad to record the fact, which we do on reliable information, that Wake Forest College has commenced the Spring session of the present scholastic year, under most favorable circumstances. There were in attendance, on the opening of the session, ninety students and the number will be increased to over a hundred.

The friends of this long established institution will, no doubt, rejoice to hear of its increasing prospects of success and usefulness, and those, if any, who have been despondent in regard to it, may "thank God and take courage," and renew their efforts in its behalf.

AN ENTERPRISING YOUTH.—Master Fred. A. Olds, has been operating in our city for some time, as agent for some new publications, which are sold only by subscription, and we are glad to learn that he has met with gratifying success.

He left on the Western train, last night, to visit some of the towns on the North Carolina Railroad, in prosecution of his business, that of obtaining subscribers to the works for which he is agent, and we commend him to the kind offices of the peop'e wherever he may go, for Freddie is a nice, enterprising boy, and deserves encouragement and success.

One of the works he has in hand is Mark Twain's new book, "The Innocents Abroad, or the new Pilgrim's Progress," a book that will entertain you and make you laugh, even if you had the tooth-ache. Copies of this Book may be seen, during his absence, at the office of Mr. S. D. Waitt, Insurance Agent

MORE ROGUERY.—We understand that the dwelling of Wm. A. Blount, Esq., on Hillsborough street, west of the Railroad, was broken into on Saturday night, and three feather beds and a quantity of fine table ware taken away. Mr. Blount and family are at his farm in Beaufort county, and there is no one staying in the dwelling house, the premises being left in charge of a colored servant who occupies a house on the premises. No clue to the robbers have been obtained.

ANOTHER.—The smoke house of Mr. R. Kingsland, residing on the "Cotton Place," in East Ward, was broken into, on Saturday night, the rogues making a clean sweep, not even leaving him meat enough for breakfast Monday morning.

STILL ANOTHER.—Mr. Hicks, who keeps a grocery on Wilmington street, had his establishment broken into on Sunday night, and a considerable quantity of sugar, coffee and other articles taken.

Our police seem to be unlucky in their efforts to ferret out and bring to punishment these depredators on people's property, as we have not heard of their catching any of them. People will be compelled to guard their own premises more carefully, and give these night hawks lead to carry off instead of booty. That's the course we intend to pursue. We always keep things in readiness for them, of which fact one or two have already had pretty plain hints.

POU.—It is said this gentlemen has Congressional aspirations; he voted for the military bill, remember.

FIRE IN PERSON.—On Thursday night last, the Tobacco factory of Mr. Henry Reams, near Roxboro', Person County, was burned, together with a large quantity of tobacco. The loss was heavy; insured in the Liverpool, London and Globe, P. F. Pescud, Agent, for $15,000.

This burning of tobacco factories is becoming a not uncommon item of news, of late.

RECEIVED.—Hitchcock's Monthly Magazine, containing choice music, Art notes and select reading for the family, February 1870. This, to any one of musical tastes and pursuits, must prove an invaluable magazine. The present number contains "The Wolf at the Door," "So lonely without Thee," "Pleasant Dreams," and "Glenwood Polka." Published by Benjamin W. Hichcock, 24, Beekman street, N. Y., price $3,00 per annum.

JUST OUT.—Cherry Pectoral Troches, superior to all others, for Colds, Coughs, Sore Throats, Bronchitis and Horseness. None so pleasant, none cure so quick.

REMARKS OF MR. BEALL, OF CALDWELL,

In the Senate, on the resolutions requesting the Governor to remove M. S. Littlefield from the office of State Printer, &c.

MR. PRESIDENT:—I was content to present these resolutions, and leave their discussion to others, but the Senator from Columbus, (Mr. Jones,) has seen fit to attack them in a manner that I feel bound to notice.

There is no question, Sir, that the State's credit is deplorably depreciated, her fair fame tarnished, and her public works almost hopelessly obstructed. And of all the agents of this woeful condition there is a wide spread conviction among the people, that no one is more immediately connected with and responsible for this State of things, than the subject of these resolutions, Milton S. Littlefield. Whether this opinion is well or ill founded, still it is the deep seated conviction of the public mind that he is no longer fit to be connected with the State, as its agent, for anything, and that he is utterly unworthy to be trusted with the important office of printing our public laws, and to have, in his hands, the management and funds of our most important Railroad.

The Senator from Guilford, (Mr. Welker,) in alluding to another subject, made the declaration, that the wide spread convictions, and, even the prejudices of the people, should be respected. And I ask, Sir, should we not respect their convictions in this case, and take steps to remove an agent whom they deem unworthy to be trusted?

But, Sir, is this impression among the people without foundation? Is it a prejudice? Is there no evidence to show that this impression is correct? I undertake to say, Sir, that there is evidence not only presumptive but clear and positive. What say the records of the Superior Court of Wake county? We find that in order to avoid the payment of three thousand dollars to one A. W. Shaffer, who had brought suit against him on a note for that amount, he makes the "answer," under oath, 1st. "that he did sign such a note, but it was given to a fictitious person, and without consideration." 2nd. "That no such person was then or is now, in being as James Smith." 3rd. "That it was given to a fictitious person for an illegal purpose!"—There is the evidence, clear, undeniable, positive! He confesses that he gave a fraudulent note for an illegal purpose."—What that purpose was we are left to infer. Was it to obtain money from unsuspecting people? Was it to procure some Railroad swindle? Was it to corrupt voters? Was it to carry through the Legislature some public fraud? It may have been for any or all of these, for they are "illegal purposes."

Now, Sir, his "answer" is either true or it is not true. If true, he is guilty of gross fraud and corruption, and is not fit to be the State's agent. If not true then he has sworn to what is false, and no perjurer is fit to be an agent for the State. View this transaction in any light you please, and I submit, Sir, that it is strong evidence of corruption, and is good ground for the conviction in the public mind that he is unfit to hold the office of State Printer and Railroad President.

Again, the records of Wake Superior Court will show that this bad man was presented by the grand jury for attempts to bribe members of the General Assembly with whiskey and money. The Senate have the sworn evidence of Dr. Hawkins before a Committee of their own appointment to investigate charges of bribery and corruption, that he employed him as his Attorney to lobby a bill through this Legislature; and Senators had ocular demonstration of the means he used —— an open bar-room in the Capitol!

So much for the positive evidence, and now for the presumptive.

It is a fact generally known to the country that a special Committee was appointed by the Legislature last Winter to investigate charges of corruption and bribery.—It is also known to the country that he then suddenly left the Capital of the State, and did not return until after that Committee had been discharged.

Again if is well known that when the House of Representatives began to investigate the alleged Railroad frauds this Winter, he again left suddenly the night of the very day on which the investigation commenced, and as far as known has never been near the Capital since.

Now, Sir, when suspicion points directly at a man, and then begins to resolve itself into certainty, and takes the form of a charge of criminal conduct, and the man suddenly puts himself out of the way of investigation, puts himself where he can not be reached, is it not strong presumptive evidence of guilt?

When Cataline fled from Rome under the charge of conspiracy, Cicero made it the occasion of one of his most powerful orations, and urged his flight as a strong argument of guilt—as a confession of his crime.

From the days of Cataline to this, the flight of one accused of crime has always and every where been taken as a confession that the accusation is true.

Sir, I could make the evidence "cumulative," as the lawyers say, if I would rely upon the newspapers as evidence to convict a criminal. The newspapers of the North publish his name in connection with fraudulent transactions in North Carolina bonds, and the newspapers of Florida publish Littlefield, Swepson and Gov. Reid as having been presented by a grand jury of that State for trampling upon her laws.

And we see, Sir, wherever this Republican Cataline flies, whether to the great Commercial emporium of the continent, or to the everglades of Florida, his name is associated with fraud and corruption.

With these facts, undisputed and known throughout the land; with this evidence, positive, presumptive and cumulative before them, it is not strange that there is a wide spread conviction among the people that he is guilty of corruption; that he has speculated in the bonds of the State entrusted to his care; that he has impaired the credit of the State; that he has brought reproach on her good name; and should no longer be trusted.

I ask the Senator from Columbus, if you had an agent managing a farm or a manufactory for you, and should find him passing fraudulent notes for "illegal purposes," and tampering with your "hands" to induce them to steal the produce of your farm or make way with your goods, would you think of retaining him a day in your service? Or suppose these things should reach your ears as floating rumors, and you should tell him that you intended to investigate their truth, and he should then suddenly put himself beyond your reach, would you not at once be convinced of his guilt? If he were an honest man he would not flee, but demand investigation. If he were an honest man he would not hide himself, but give every opportunity for a full investigation, that you might know the falsity of the charges. I think the parallel is complete, the evidence is complete, and the argument conclusive. And the people, with astonishment, see the Governor who appointed him to these responsible offices, and who has power to remove him, still retaining him, still disregarding their wishes; and with astonishment have seen us, who gave this power to the Governor, and are therefore instrumental, responsible, sitting here for months owing to this man was committing frauds upon the people, knowing their convictions about him, and yet not taking the first step to remove him not even by simple request to the Governor. Now sir, who will endorse this man? Who will insist that he shall still be State Printer? Who will refuse to make the simple request of the Governor who appointed him to the office to take steps to remove him? For that is all these resolutions ask. Who, I ask, in this Senate, will endorse this man by voting against these resolutions? Who, in this Senate, will refuse to respect the universal wish of the people, that this man shall no longer be allowed to impose upon them? Remember the maxim of the Senator from Guilford, that the convictions, and even the prejudices of the people should be respected.

I have said perhaps all that is necessary on these resolutions. I have said it with a feeble voice, a voice feeble by nature and still further weakened by ill health, but let me say here sir, that as feeble as my voice may be, sneers cannot stifle it, ridicule can not stifle it; all the powers that the agents and pimps of fraud and corruption can bring to bear can not smother it, when I deem it my duty to raise it in defence of what is right or in condemnation of what is wrong.

I know sir, that when an honest man attempts to tell the truth, these days, or makes an attempt to stay the tide of villainy, that he is hooted at, and sneered at, and ridiculed by the minions and puppets of falsehood. But Sir when I see a class of men reared in the hot beds of iniquity, without a moral idea, without a moral principle, spurned by all decent society where they are known, forcing themselves upon a heart broken, spirit crushed people, and feeding and fattening on their miseries and misfortunes, all the powers of corruption can not prevent me from raising my voice against their evil deeds—and feeble though it may be, it will be heard.

Truth is mighty though it be uttered in feeble accents. Truth is a mighty power sitting upon an eternal throne, and though its messengers may be humble, they will be respected. Though its messages may be borne upon a whisper, they have a power that is far reaching, penetrating into hidden haunts, and causing crime to turn pale with fear. Though to its enemies it may appear "bound with fetters of brass," and blind and helpless, as did Sampson when in the hands of his enemies, let them remember that truth is still a giant with his arms around the pillars, and he will overthrow their temple of corruption, and bury the priests of fraud in fearful ruin.

Yes Sir, truth will prevail. The sneers, the taunts, the ridicule of its enemies, are pointless shafts striking a granite wall.—It will prevail, though the champions of fraud and corruption may come forth with bold front, and brazen face, hurling defiance. Let them remember that, in the olden time, a powerful giant, clad in steel and armed with sword and shield, went forth with pomp and pride to defy the armies of truth. Let them remember his fate. Let them remember that a mere youth came forth to meet him, as the champion of truth; a mere youth with a girlish face it may be with a girlish voice—he was without armour, without helmet or spear—but let them remember that this unarmed boy, jeered, sneered at, taunted, did with a "smooth stone of the brook" smite the armed giant to the earth. However humble its instruments, "truth is mighty and will prevail."

TRICK ON THE TRAIN.

Mr. Berben Castleberry, of Morrisville, on Sunday night, was returning from a trip West, when two negroes on the train, between Charlotte and Salisbury, approached him and asked him to change some money. He pulled out his pocket book, when one of the negroes said, taking hold of it "there's a counterfeit bill." Mr. C. ordered him to stand aside, when a white man, standing close by, said "let me look;" he handed the white man his pocket book, who said it was all right, and handed it to the negro, who handed it to Mr. C. When Mr. C. opened his pocket book the next day, fifty dollars were missing.

Mr. C. describes the negro as a round faced, good looking, well dressed man. He has met with such good luck, no doubt he will make his appearance often on the train and ask passengers to change money, for him.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is liquid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

The Virginia Senator, Lewis, had a long interview with the President. Butterfield was before the Gold Committee, and contradicts Fish. The Committee on Ways and Means failed to report a tax bill on Tuesday. The duty on bituminous coal will be the same, anthracite will be free.—This only affects California.

The Haytien Minister, a mulatto, declined the President's invitation to dinner on account of the execution of his chief, Salnave, and his being banished. Gen. Sherman will construct a new military department for Gen. Canby, which will include Virginia.

The London Morning Telegraph of to-day exults in the success of Erie shareholders here in circumventing James Fisk Jr., by having shares stamped before another batch can arrive.

In the House the day was devoted to debates during which Mr. Wilkinson said, that, in his judgment Congress had power to take charge of Railroads in States that formed great commercial links. This power, he said, he believed was vested under that clause of the constitution which declared that Congress should regulate commerce between States.

Mr. Bird of N. J., inquired whether the gentleman believed that Congress could take charge of and operate the Railroad running through New Jersey and control its freight and other charges and regulate them.

Mr. Wilkinson had not the least doubt that Congress had a right to do this thing but that it was its duty to do it as a rebuke to New Jersey for fostering this.

Mr. Wilkinson hoped Congress would take speedy action upon this subject, and he gave notice that he would himself introduce a bill declaring the policy of Congress on the subject.

HURDLES MILLS,
Person Co. Jan. 24th 1870.

MR EDITOR:—You may think, perhaps, from the subject of this letter, that I ought rather to write to my Representative in the Legislature than to you; I would do so, if I had a representative there, but I have none. The Person members represent only the negroes and Judge Reade. It is true, Senator Winstead represents, also, the negroes of Granville, but that doesn't help me any.

So I must write to you and request you to ask the negro representatives of Person to have a law passed to refund to the tax payers of Person the surplus tax paid by them over and above that assessed on other counties.

In this county the peop'e were required to pay a tax on their bread and meat; in Orange and Granville no such tax was paid. This I call Radical ad valorem with a looseness.

But the principal thing I took my pen in hand for, was to tell you about John Snipes, a colored gentleman of the "old issue."—John gave in for taxation a lone and solitary pig, spotted, black and white. The pig was assessed at fifty cents; the cost of listing him was about three cents; the tax to be derived was so small that the Assessor could not calculate the amount, so they scratched the pig off the tax book, and John Snipes goes tax free, this year.

I want you to tell me what penalty the tax list takers have incurred by failing to take the list and report the same correctly?

Yours, PERSON.

We refer "Person" to Attorney General Olds, for his opinion on the subject.

HENRY'S
CARBOLIC
OR
BLOOD CLEANSER.

This medicine is known to the faculty as being the concentrated fluid extract of Sarsaparilla united with other valuable medicinal herbs, and is guaranteed as chemically pure.

SCROFULA AND CONSUMPTION,

This remedy is compounded expressly for purifying and cleansing the blood of all impurities, going at once to the fountain-head of disease. It extinguishes

Tumors, Consumption, Syphilis, Skin Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Boils, Rheumatism, Waste of Vitality, Scrofula.

We all know that the promiscuous vaccination indulged in during the late war bred the most villainous diseases. Vaccination pus was taken from the arms of many persons full of scrofulous sores.

Then of course the impurities of the scrofulous patient were absorbed in the blood of men otherwise without diseases, and both be alike in actual effect. Men, women and children throughout all the West are most woefully diseased from this cause, and knew not, until a few months ago, the origin of it.

Henry's Constitution Renovator

Relieves the Entire System of Pain and aches, enlivens the spirits, and sends new blood

BOUNDING THROUGH EVERY VEIN.

It imparts a

Sparkling Brightness to the Eye,
A Rosy Glow to the Cheek,
A Ruby Tinge to the Lips,
A Clearness to the Head,
Brightness to the Complexion,
Buoyancy to the Spirits,
And Happiness on all sides.

For all affections of the Kidneys it is unsurpassed.

People have been rescued, as it were, from the very jaws of death, by a timely use of this great remedy.

EXTRACTS FROM VARIOUS LETTERS.

"Doctor, I was vaccinated in the hospital.—Before that I had no skin disease. Until I had a bottle of your "Constitution Renovator" sent me by Mr. Roper, of Columbus, Mo., I suffered terribly with running sores since I used two bottles I am all well except a small sore on the calf of my left leg, and that is getting well fast."

This from a lady.—"And now my skin is as clear and fair as a babe's. My complexion, thanks to your "Renovator," is beautiful.

"Yes yes, I may well say such relief was unknown to me before. Enclosed find five dollars for six bottles; two families here want to try it."

"I was very much troubled with syphilis.—Your remedy seems to be curing me fast. Send 4 bottles per Express."

"No more rheumatism. Three bottles of Constitution Renovator have made me a new man."

"Doctor, enclosed find $5." Please send me a supply. Two families here want to try your Constitution Renovator."

We have not space for more of the above extracts, but you can ask your neighbor about the remedy. Every one has something good to say, as it cures every time.

FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS, RETENTION OF THE URINE, &c.
And for Female Diseases,
Nervous Prostration, Weakness, General Lassitude, and Want of Appetite, it is unsurpassed.

CAUTION!—In ordering our remedy always place the number of our Post-Office Box on your letters. The new law in our New York Post-Office compels this.

PRATT'S
"ASTRAL" OIL.

UNLIKE MANY OTHER ILLUMINATING Oils, is perfectly pure, and free from all adulterations or mixtures of any kind. It emits no offensive smell when burning, gives a soft and brilliant light, and can be used with the same assurance of safety as gas. Chemists pronounce it the best and safest illuminating Oil ever offered to the public; and Insurance Companies indorse and urge upon consumers the use of the "Astral" Oil in preference to any other. It is now burned by thousands of families, and in no instance has any accident occurred from its use; a lamp filled with it, if upset and broken, will not explode. To prevent adulteration, the "Astral" Oil is packed only in the Guaranty Patent Cans, of 5 gallon and 5 gallons each, and each can is sealed in a manner that cannot be counterfeited. AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.

RATES LOWER THAN ANY OTHER COMPANY THAT PAYS DIVIDENDS TO POLICY-HOLDERS.

LOSSES PAID PROMPTLY IN CASH.

LIST OF LOSSES ACTUALLY PAID BY THE ÆTNA LIFE INS. CO., AT THE BRANCH OFFICE, IN RALEIGH, BY THE HANDS OF W. H. CROW, GENERAL MANAGER OF THE STATE AND PART OF VA.

"	38,650	5,000
"	42,974	2,500

"	22,364	15,00

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$13,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,34
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	65,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed nett assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,327 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
